

DESCRIPTION

Keep your smartphone close at hand at all times with our Velcro-secured universal holder, designed to offer a practical and secure solution for active users. Whether you're doing manual labor, hiking or engaged in any other activity, this holder gives you easy access to your device without compromising your mobility.

Universal and flexible attachment: the silicone holder is compatible with smartphones from 4 to 7 inches. Whether you have an iPhone, Samsung Galaxy or any other smartphone of similar size, this holder will fit your device perfectly. You can position your smartphone in portrait or landscape mode.

Convenient Velcro fastening: The holder attaches with a Velcro buckle, providing a secure hold around your belt or backpack strap.

Easy to use and transport: Lightweight and compact, this bracket slips easily into your pocket or backpack when not in use. Its ergonomic design makes the installation quick and effortless, keeping you focused on your core business.

Whether you're a professional on the move, an outdoor enthusiast or simply someone who wants to keep their smartphone close at hand, our universal Velcro mount is the perfect accessory to meet your needs for mobility and practicality.
