

DESCRIPTION

A circular monitor stand that is adjustable in two different heights.

The Q-riser 110 Circular is a height adjustable monitor stand made of sustainable PET-felt material.
Choose one of the two height levels and bring your screen to your optimal viewing position, and automatically adapt your posture. The Q-riser 110 Circular monitor stand is not only sustainable, but also stable. Create with this monitor stand an ergonomic monitor set-up at your fixed workplace at the office, at your shared-desk, or at your desk at home, and improve your comfort and productivity during your working day.
