Frame for 2 elements stainless steel interior graphite Simon 82 Nature

REF. 82827-37

BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

Like all the products in the Nature range, the manufacturing material of this frame for 2 elements is characterised by its high quality and resistance, being one of our star products. The stainless steel finish fits perfectly with virtually any type of decoration, as it looks discreet yet sophisticated and stylish. Also, this product is slightly larger than average to highlight the beauty of the frame and enhance its decorative effect. To preserve its aesthetic character, it is recommended to use the finish for rockers and covers in graphite, since it fits perfectly with the stainless steel of the frame. As with all products in the range, this frame includes a thermoplastic baseboard of high thermal resistance, it is also easy to install and is suitable to be recessed on surfaces. Its technical features and the quality of its materials contribute to its unbeatable value for money.
