

Front kit for 3 elements with 1 German socket outlet, 1 HDMI + USB connector and 1 single R/TV+SAT socket matt white Simon 100

REF. 10020304-230

BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

3-element front kit with 1 Schuko plug base, 1 HDMI + USB connector and 1 R-TV + SAR socket only matte white. This Simon 100 series product has a matte white finish, perfect for those places where it seeks to give an image of elegance and minimalism. This kit occupies 3 elements. The content of its packaging brings with it the cover and the keys. It is a multimedia kit, so it offers TV, games, music and plug connectors.

As for the direction of the installation, this can be both vertical and horizontal. It is a standard type part that can be marketed throughout the EC.

To preserve its durability it is advisable to use a soft cloth dampened in soapy water, and that the use of chlorine cleaners be avoided.

For correct maintenance of the device, it can withstand a wide range of temperatures. The temperature range for its operation is from 5° C to 40° C and the temperature range for its storage ranges from -25° C to 50° C.
