BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

This daring and colorful interchangeable sleeve has been designed to satisfy all tastes and needs of our customers. Because in addition to the classic and conventional lines, we develop all the potential of our products and adapt to the most modern demands, and this is reflected in the Simon 27 Play series, this interchangeable 1-part frame sleeve features a arctic orange colour, a fresh and striking shade suitable for modern, personality decorating. To highlight its full potential, it is recommended to combine with rockers and covers in graphite colour, although there are more possibilities available to our customers. Manufactured in thermoplastic material painted with great strength and durability, this case is suitable for installation in surface-mounted and also to be recessed. On the other hand, it is possible to position, place up to 2 modules can be placed vertically or horizontally, thus allowing a multitude of installation possibilities.
