

Interchangeable case for 1 element frame comic Simon 27 Play

REF. 2700617-800

BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

Since we adapt our homes to the decorative and fashionable tastes that change over time, the accessories for electrical installation should be no less, and what simpler than a practical interchangeable sleeve to give a completely new look to an installation? The Simon 27 Play series has been created to adapt to the most modern and modern tastes, and also to leave no one indifferent. The interchangeable 1-part frame sleeve with a comic book finish is very modern and youthful, but it also adds that retro touch you love today. In combination with rockers and covers in graphite colour, it shows an excellent appearance and highlights the finish of the case. It is manufactured in thermoplastic material of high thermal resistance and high quality. It is suitable for both surface and to be recessed, adapting to each type of installation.
