BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

Intermediate piece for an element for the series of frames Simon 75. With a powerful and daring, finished in red colour, this product is committed to a unique design and groundbreaking. It is ideal for places where the colour is the protagonist or you want to give a note vibrant to the space. The most is advisable to place it in frames of the same finish, but you can opt for other combinations. The installation of this intermediate piece it can perform of two shapes: In surface-mounted or recessed. It is manufactured from components thermoplastically isolated, which prevent the propagation of the heat. This is a guarantee of security to be taken into account. The intermediate piece of the Simon 75 series is optimal for one element, maintenance is very easy. To clean it properly you just need to use cloths of cotton, very soft, dampened in water with soap. It is recommended, always avoid corrosive cleaners containing chlorine or other chemical.
