BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

Electronic functions of all kinds, a multitude of colours and shapes that favour all kinds of combinations of the most original. You just have to be clear about what you want and in Simon you will find. Especially thanks to the variety of this collection of products, the Simon 75 series. On this occasion, we present this intermediate piece for 1 lilac element, a colour that can fit in modern, youthful environments or in sports centres or schools and many more places. It all depends on the touch you want to give it. A piece suitable for surface-mounted and to be recessed and easy to maintain (clean with a soft cloth and soapy water). Simon 75 In this type of products, it is usually recommended to use the same finish as the rocker and / or cover, but we also have many more options that can fit with what you are looking for. Consult them before making a decision.
