REF. 10001094-138

BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

Simon presents in this 100 collection the HDMI connector plate in quartz black finish, designed for patterns full of character and personality. It is made of polymer with a thermoplastic grip and its cleaning is simple, just use a soft cloth, previously moistened with soapy water. The Simon 100 collection adds elegance and modernity to any space, in addition to being a complete revolution: digital with the new Simon iO mobile application. This app allows the user to take control of all electrical mechanisms in the home space or ambience in a professional manner. In addition, this Simon collection does not forget the design, but it gives a place of witness. With its quartz finishes, clean and essential lines and excellent construction materials, this series blends in perfectly with any architectural space.
