BASIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

The security and the energy efficiency of an electrical installation depends on the care we have on the small details. For this reason, it is very important to have all the necessary accessories to perform a correct installation, for which we can always count on the devices included in the series 27. The interchangeable cover for frame for 3 elements in a titanium finish is one of the most outstanding elements included in this range of Simon. Suitable for surface and flush mounting, has dimensions of 86x236 mm By its features, it is recommended to combine with rockers and covers of graphite colour. Why is it as resistant to knocks? Painted thanks to the thermoplastic materials with which it has been manufactured, its structure, which can be maintained as the first day being cleaned with a soft and dry cloth to avoid the oxidation typical of the passage of time.
