

4430 Tomcat Face Shield

Face shield with adjustable headband

Consisting of a comfortable browguard and clear polycarbonate visor, this ENHA 4430 Tomcat face shield provides reliable face protection. The browguard can be easily adjusted to fit, thanks to the ratchet system, while the sweatband draws moisture away from the forehead for great working comfort.

Features

- ▲ Face shield with polypropylene browguard and clear polycarbonate visor
- ▲ Headband with ratchet adjustment
- ▲ Sweatband for wearer comfort
- ▲ Protection against low-energy impact
- ▲ Resistant to temperatures between -5°C and +55°C
